

ABBIE REYES

Abbie has been dancing at South County Dance Company ever since she was 3 years old. She joined the competition team at South County at the age of 9, and has been competing with the team ever since. Abbie trains at the studio in numerous styles including jazz, lyrical, contemporary, ballet, pointe, and hip hop. She is continuing to train at South County with teachers/choreographers such as Donna Shepherd, Clarisse Takemoto, Amy Nakamura, Vickie Roan, Sara Gentile, Nicole Hagen, Matthew Kubitz, Riley Kurilko, Kelley Guise, and Marlena Arellano. She will continue to dance at South County and into college. While competing and training at South County Abbie has performed in The Choreographer's Kidz Carnival under Jerome Alexander. She also received the Dancer of the Year award in 2016. Abbie enjoys competing with her team and dancing every day at the studio. She also loves to teach and share her passion and love of dance with others. She is very excited to teach at South County Dance and share her knowledge and joy of dancing with her students!
