

KELLEY GUISE

Kelley has been training in jazz, ballet, lyrical and contemporary for the past 20 years. She has received an abundant amount of choreography awards for her work and has taught all over Orange County at various studios and schools. She is currently an instructor in the Commercial Dance department at Orange County High School of the Arts. Recently, she has been studying contemporary movement as her main focus and continues to be inspired by all the amazing dancers she's been able to work with.