

MATTHEW KUBITZ

Matthew Kubitz is from Oceanside, California and spent his training under the direction of Jocelyn K. Wilson and Anjelica Wilson at Oceanside Dance Academy. He started training at the age of eleven in jazz, tap, ballet, contemporary, and hip hop. Matthew continued his training at Chapman University and recently graduated with a Bachelors of Fine Arts in Dance Performance and a Business Administration minor.

Before going to Chapman University, Matthew had the opportunity to be a part of and train on Tessandra Chavez's company, Unity Dance Ensemble, under the direction of Tarua Hall. While being on Unity Dance Ensemble, he had the opportunity to grow within the company and become a dance captain for over a year and also was a soloist for the company during his last two years on the company. Matthew has also performed with Entity Contemporary Dance Company in their first show, Braxon vs. Oregon, under the direction of Will Johnston and Marissa Osato.

Recently, he has performed in two music for Blake McGrath, as well as his promotional tour show in Los Angeles. He is currently signed with McDonald/Selznick Associates (MSA) and is living in Los Angeles.
