Dancing since the age of 8, Sara Gentile has trained in the areas of musical theater, jazz, contemporary, ballet, tap, jazz-funk, and hip-hop. She grew up training and competing with South County Dance under the direction of Clarisse Takemoto. Sara danced competitively for 11 years, winning numerous titles, scholarships, and awards. While living in Los Angeles, Sara performed in West Hollywood's Halloween Carnival, The Choreographer's Carnival, and the Make-A-Wish Foundation Gala in Chicago, Illinois. Her video credits include music videos with Paul Kalkbrenner, Irontom's "The Minista" produced by Jack Irons and Charlie Sheen, and Sulshii's "M.I.L.F. Money Remix" choreographed by Dana Alexa.

Sara has always loved performing, but has a strong passion for teaching and choreographing as well. She's had the pleasure of choreographing all over California for various competitive studios, high schools, colleges, and NBA dance teams, such as the Sacramento Kings. Sara is so very happy to be working with South County Dance and is thrilled to share her love and passion for dance with her students.
