

SARA GENTILE

Dancing since the age of 8, Sara Gentile has trained in the areas of musical theater, jazz, contemporary, ballet, tap, jazz-funk, and hip-hop. She trained and danced competitively for 11 years with South County Dance, winning numerous titles, scholarships, and awards. She has trained under choreographers such as our very own, Clarisse Takemoto, Jerome Alexander, Chalatorn Ujamras, Tiffanie Carson, Kelley Guise, and Amy Nakamura.

While living in Los Angeles, Sara performed in West Hollywood's Halloween Carnaval, The Choreographer's Carnaval, and the Make-A-Wish Foundation Gala in Chicago, Illinois. Her video credits include music videos with artists such as Paul Kalkbrenner, Anson Sky, Irontom's "The Minista" produced by Jack Irons and Charlie Sheen, and Dana Alexa's "M.I.L.F. Money Remix". She has also been apart of the shadow theater company Inspirati, directed by Steve Ewing. Most recently, Sara had the opportunity to represent the United States at Dance2Dance in Zurich, Switzerland under the direction of Jerome Alexander.

Sara has always loved performing, but has a strong passion for teaching and choreographing as well. She has had the pleasure of teaching all over Orange County at various studios and schools such as San Juan Hills High School, Troy High School, and has guest choreographed for the University of Southern California's, Xpressions Dance Company. Sara is so very happy to be working with South County Dance and is thrilled to share her love and passion for dance with her students.
